Dated 5th December, 2011

Office Memorandum

Subject: Lok Sabha USQ. No.2527 due for reply on 8/12/2011 regarding 'Schemes for Empowerment of Rural Women' raised by Shri Varun Gandhi – information reg.

The undersigned is directed to refer to Aajeevika’s Section’s O.M.No.H.11016/15/2011- Aajeevika dated 2/12/11 on the above mentioned subject and to say that in so far as Rural Housing Division is concerned, the information is as under:

(a) to (d) Indira Awaas Yojana (IAY), is being implemented in the rural areas of all States/UTs since 1985-86 (except Delhi and Chandigarh). This is an ongoing allocation based scheme Funds are allocated to the States/UTs in accordance with predetermined criteria by assigning due weightage to housing shortage and poverty ratio. IAY guidelines do not provide separate earmarking of financial benefits and physical targets to women. However, as per scheme guidelines, the houses constructed are to be allotted in the name of female member of the beneficiary household. Alternatively, it can be allotted in the name of both husband and wife. In case, there is no eligible female member in the family available/alive, IAY house can be allotted in the name of a male member of the eligible BPL family.

A statement showing details of physical target set, houses constructed/sanctioned and the houses allotted in the name of women and joint name both husband and wife under IAY during the 11th Five Year Plan is given below:
