Office Memorandum

Subject: Material for Rajya Sabha Provisional Un-Starred Question Dy No. U392 for answer on 07/08/2013 by Shri Parimal Nathwani, MP regarding “Employment Opportunities in Jharkhand”

The undersigned is directed to refer to MP(G) Section Office Memorandum No. H-110017/16/2013-MP(G) dated 01.08.2013 on the subject mentioned above and to furnish the following material relating to National Rural Livelihoods Mission for framing the reply:-

(a to d) The Government have decided to set up Rural Self Employment Training Institute (RSETI) one in each district of the country, for basic and skill development training of the rural poor youth to enable them to undertake micro enterprises and wage employment. The scheme envisages that the Ministry of Rural Development will bear the one time expenditure, up to a maximum of Rs 1.00 crore per institution, on infrastructure development of these Rural Self Employment Training Institutes and through the DRDAs will also provide support towards cost of training for rural poor candidates to the sponsor Banks. State Governments will provide land, free of cost, to these institutions on priority basis. It would be the responsibility of the banks to manage day to day functioning of the institute.

Year-wise details of youth trained in RSETI and the settlement details in Jharkhand are given below:-
